
Noho kekahi ʻapana o kēia hale ma kekahi īlī, o Nauala.

Part of this building sits in the īlī (an ancient Hawaiian land division) of Kaukahōkū. The Pukui-Elbert Hawaiian Dictionary gives the definition of kaukahōkū as “the stars appeared.” One half of the īlī is situated at Nu‘uanu, Honolulu. Queen Emma’s home Hana‘iakamalama is located in the Honolulu portion of the īlī.

A portion of the building also rests on part of the īlī called Nauala.
